The stone walls come to life to portray the vibrant life of the knights that took place in this very spot. The Crusader Street features artisans of the period, such as blacksmiths, glassblowers, traditional weavers, and perfume and oil craftsmen. Enter the food house where a feast is on offer, combining acting, singing and dancing, a Crusader pub and jousting on horseback. A one-of-a-kind attraction for the entire family.

A new unique experience is currently on offer in the Old City of Akko. Open to visitors, both day and night.

During the day - A 4,000-year old story unfolds inside the halls of the citadel - the museum displays and films projected on the walls tell the story of the Crusades and offer vast historical information regarding the various eras. During this tour, each visitor receives a headset, in one of 10 different languages, with which to operate the displays. During the day, visit the streets, chapel, stores and an arts and crafts market, featuring artisans from the Crusades era, offering their wares: blacksmiths, glass blowers, potters, weavers, embroiderers, leather craftsmen, basket weavers, perfume and oil craftsmen, etc.

Visit our Crusader Restaurant! Knight Jousts on horseback-advance booking.

Coming soon!

At night - you can take part in a Crusader feast, featuring musical theatrical entertainment, watch a tournament of knights and jousts on horseback in the hippodrome. All of these attractions take place in a colorful authentic setting and tell the story of the day-to-day life and the historical events of the Crusades era.
