Re: Chinese Tourism Company Debts to Israeli Incoming Tour Operators

I am writing to you with reference to the fact that some companies owned and licensed by the Chinese government have refused to pay their debts to Israel's tourism organizers for services that were provided to them in full and to their satisfaction.

Services provided by the Israeli tour operators include hotel reservations, entrance fees to sites, transportation, guides, etc.

The companies, whose details appear within this letter, continue to operate in China, taking advantage of the crisis in order to avoid paying their financial obligations:

1. Anhui China Travel Service Co. Ltd. Shanghai Branch.

China Tourism Association
Mr. Duan Qiang
President

China International Culture Association
Mr. Zhang Xu
President

China Tourist Hotels Association
Mr. Tang Wenjian
Chairman of the 8th Council of China

China Outbound Tourism Research Institute
Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Georg Arlt FRGS FRAS

4. SHENZHEN JOYTOUR INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL SERVICE CO.,LTD CHENGDU BRANCH

5. Beijing caissa International Travel Service Co. Ltd L-BJ-cj00051 Chi Jiapei.

12. Shanghai Jingcai International Travel Service Co., Ltd. 上海景彩国际旅行社有限公司.
13. GDCTS
14. Shanghai Zhi Qi Tourism

The Israel Incoming Tour Operators Association has thoroughly checked the names on the list and both the Chinese agents, and the Israeli agents agree that the bills are correct on all counts. There is no dispute on this issue. We approach you in good faith to help resolve this issue without litigation in Israel and in China and have the companies listed in this letter settle the matter and make their payments. I have no doubt that you agree that the failure to pay outstanding debts damage the fabric of the excellent relationship woven over the years between the Republic of China and Israel and that the huge debts left unpaid will harm the renewing of tourism and commercial ties, when normal conditions are reinstated.

The Israel Incoming Tourism Association would appreciate your assistance in recouping money owed to the members of the of the Association to which they are entitled, from the Chinese Tourism agencies. We are grateful for your consideration in this matter unfortunate and unnecessary matter.

Sincerely,

Yossef Fatael
General Manager
